1/25/72-jp, hr only and for the time being, confidential. one of my friends, who did not have time to go into everything, including some of the things in which I was most interested and for which I did background him, has sent me a dub of a 25-minute interview with laftimer. I understand I stuttered and backed off much on questioning. when ie comes i will listen to an let you know if it has anything significant. until i hear i cannot really know for this is a friend, not an expert. hw
